

arched and are framed with architrave molding. The main entrance, a round-arched portal, is contained in a angled corner bay and is framed with a classical surround of cast iron. The right hand side of the building was once used as a furniture store and telephone company.

Building No. 10
106 East Main Street
Proebstel Hardware (Historic)
Common name: Old Post Office
Date of construction: circa 1888
Style: Italianate
Significance: Primary

Single story brick masonry building of locally manufactured brick, rectangular in plan. Approximate frontage on Main Street is 37 feet. Façade is organized, like that of the ground story of the Prutsman Building (Inventory #4). Window sash and door have been replaced. This building housed the U.S. Post Office in Weston from 1910 to 1960. It is presently used as a residence.

Building No. 11
104 East Main Street
Weston Public Library (Historic)
Date of construction: circa 1900
Style: Arts and Crafts
Significance: Secondary

Single story frame cottage with clipped, shingled, gable roof with overhanging eaves, shiplap siding. Longer axis parallel with Main Street. Façade is symmetrically organized. Casement windows with many small panes on either side of central doorway. Plain kneed door and window frame-ments. Clipped gablet centered above doorway has vergeboards and is supported by triangular brackets. Patterned shingles decorate wall surface of the gablet. Cottage is set back from Main Street about 15-20 feet behind strip of lawn and foundation shrubbery. Moved to current location in 1916.

Building No. 12
102 East Main Street
D&F Café (Common name)
Common name: D and F Café
Date of construction: circa 1912
Style: Vernacular, Western False Front
Significance: Compatible

Single story frame building with gable roof oriented longitudinally on lot 21 feet wide. Historic views of ca. 1915-1920 show that siding and false front are shiplap and that false front had the kind of wooden cornice which made this vernacular type the simplest expression of the Italianate Style. The shop front had traditional display windows and wood bulkheads. About 1956 the exterior was comprehensively stuccoed and the cornice removed. While this property dates from the secondary period of development, it is presently classified for tax purposes as compatible owing to the effect of the 1956 alterations upon the character of the building.

Pine Creek No. 13
East Main Street

This undeveloped tax lot, with its frontage of 19 feet on Main Street, contains the north-flowing Pine Creek.

Building No. 14
100 East Main Street
Polly's Antiques (Historic Name)
Current name: Central Station
Date of construction: circa 1895
Style: Italianate
Significance: Primary

Single story brick masonry building of locally manufactured brick, on basement, rectangular in plan. Approximate frontage on Main Street is 40 feet. Main Street facade originally was identical to that of the Old Post Office (inventory #10), with three major openings under segmental arches, according to an historic view of ca. 1915-1920. The upper wall and the Franklin Street facade, which is essentially blind, are unaltered and, like the Old Post Office, are divided vertically by beveled brick pilasters and corbeled string courses, the uppermost of which is denticulated. The Main Street storefront was altered with a large display window and angled entrance bay. The upper wall is now supported at the corner by a free standing cast iron column. In 1960 a cement block addition was added to the rear of the building for meat cutting and inspection for the grocery store. It is now living quarters. This building historically housed a saloon, grocery store and confectionery.

Building No. 4
109 East Main Street
Masonic Building (Historic Name)
Common name: Prutsman Building
Date of construction: circa 1892
Style: Italianate

Two story brick masonry building of locally manufactured brick, rectangular in plan. Approximate frontage on Main Street is 25 feet. Façade is organized into three bays divided vertically by beveled brick pilasters rising continuously from foundation to parapet. The lower facade consists of three major openings under segmental arches, the two outer bays being shop windows with brick bulkheads, the central bay being an entrance. The second story originally housed a Masonic Lodge hall, which remains intact. The ground story interior was gutted by a previous owner.

Building No. 5 (Vacant Lot)
111 East Main Street
Saling & Co. Building (Historic Name)
Common name: Smith Canning Co.
Date of construction: circa 1890
Significance: Primary

Single story brick masonry building of locally manufactured brick, rectangular in plan. Approximate frontage on Main Street is 52 feet. West wall is shared in common by neighboring Prutsman Building. Rear and Franklin Street fa-ades are brick with assorted openings with segmental arch heads. Service access to this building and its neighbors to the west is provided by a rear alley. Note: Building demolished in 2000 by City of Weston.

Building No. 6
201 East Main Street
Saling & Reese Store (Historic Name)
Common name: Weston Mercantile
Current: Long Branch Café & Saloon
Date of construction; c. 1874; 1900-1905
Style: Italianate

Significance: Primary; addition compatible
This single story building of locally made brick is understood to be the oldest brick building in Weston, having survived the devastating fires of 1874 and 1883. It is rectangular in plan with an approximate frontage of 40 feet on Main Street. The facade is organized into four bays in which openings are recessed in deep reveals and were, historically, protected by iron shutters. The window treatment in these exceptionally tall reveals has been modified considerably, but the brick piers dividing the bays are intact. Between 1900 and 1905 a single-story frame addition with an approximate frontage of 100 feet on Main Street was constructed on the east side. Because of the extensive alteration of the façade of the single story addition, it is separately classified for tax purposes, as compatible even though it dates from the secondary period of development in the district.

Building No. 7
206 East Main Street
Weston Opera House (Historic Name)
Common name: Weston Memorial Hall
Date of construction: 1895-1900; moved to present site from opposite side of Main Street 1918-1920
Style: Georgian Colonial Revival
Significance: Primary

Single story wood frame building, rectangular in plan with longitudinal orientation, gable roof, small rear shed addition, shiplap siding, eaveless rear gable, boxed cornices and eaves troughs side elevations, plain corner boards and water skirt. This building originally stood on Tax Lot 3500 on the north side of the Saling and Reese Store. Following Armistice Day in 1918, it was moved to the present site on the south side of Main Street and rededicated as a memorial to townsfolk who had served overseas during the First World War.

Building No. 8
204 East Main Street
Dot Supply
Common name: Dot Supply
Current Name: U.S. Post Office
Date of construction: circa 1960
Significance: Intrusive/non-historic

Single story concrete block building, square in plan, measuring 60 feet on a side. Easterly portion of building is leased to U.S. Postal Service as postal station. This is the site of the historic Marshall House, Weston's finest hostelry, a two-story brick masonry building in the Italianate Style which was torn down in the mid-1930s. (Now eligible for historic status)

Building No. 9
108 East Main Street
Farmer's Bank of Weston (Historic)
Common name: City Hall
Date of construction: 1891
Style: High Victorian Italianate
Significance: Primary

This is the only brick building in the district of genuine high style employing architectural cast iron. Constructed of locally manufactured brick, the two-story building is rectangular in plan and presents a frontage of approximately 62 feet on Main Street, approximately 72 feet on Franklin Street. Openings in the ground story of the Franklin Street facade are segmental
